- c. Government Relations Committee: Mr. Frink attended the GRC meeting on May 7, 2025. Representative Tisdale spoke on his House Bill 4141 on cell phone policy in schools. It was stressed to him that medical and learning plans need to be added to the bill. It was also discussed as to how to handle districts that already have successful cell phone policies in place. The legislative update covered a group of school safety bills that were expected to pass. These included Crisis Plans & Teams, Safety Training Plans, Student ID Updates, Drill Changes, ISD Staffing and OK2SAY Reporting. Senate Bill 234, their cell phone policy bill was also discussed. This bill is less prescriptive than the House bill leaving more latitude for districts to establish their own policies while still requiring them. The Federal Budget is still a concern as there are no clear directions on what, when, or how much will be coming. The next meeting is on June 4th.
